

Field Museum

By: Sasha, Naomi, David, & Faris

“The Man Eater of Mfuwe”

The Maneater of Mfuwe devoured 6 people but I faced him face to face.

High Fiving the Bushman

David just high fiving his buddy The Bushman.

Falcon Mummies

Falcons were sacrificed for the God Horus and were wrapped like mummies.

Favorite Mummy

Just us taking a picture with our favorite mummy in all of Egypt.

“Can you move the Stone”

This stone is 6,000 pounds but Faris and David managed to move it.

Pharaoh's Boat

This is us taking a selfie with an ancient Pharaoh's boat.

Sue the Magnificent Dinosaur

Here is David petting his pet dinosaur Sue.

The Smelting Fire

Man it was cold! This is just us warming our hands over the fire.

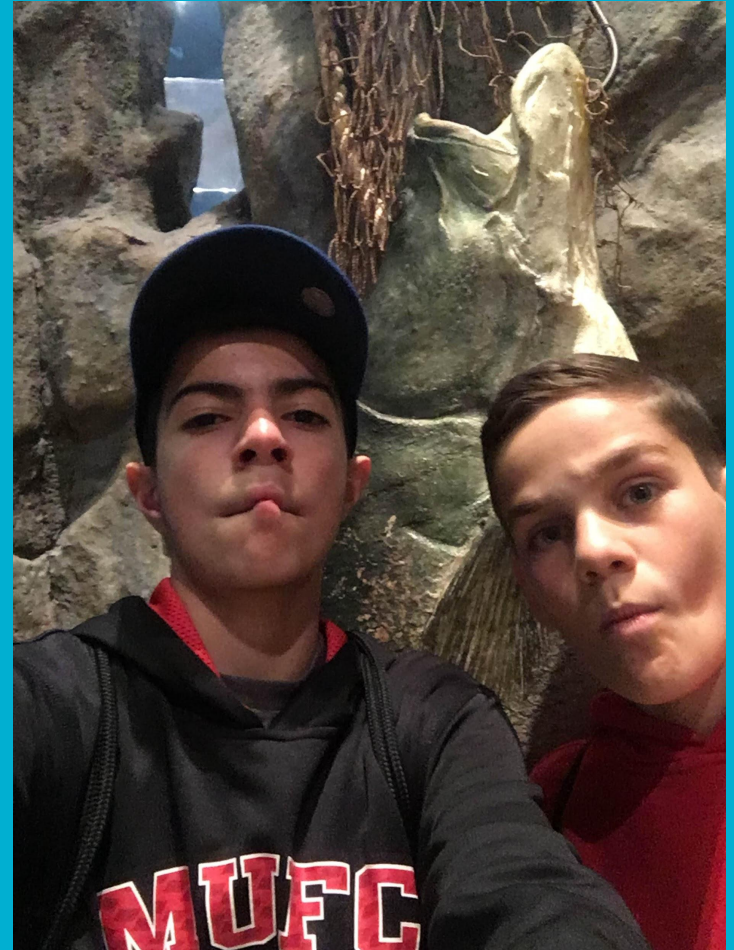

Giraffe Guts

This picture shows the guts of a Giraffe.

Giant Nile Perch

Just us taking a picture with Giant Nile Perch after we caught it.

Bison

Over 60 million bison used to roam America and we were lucky to get a picture with some.

Our Favorite Trilobite

There was so many to choose from but, this was one of our favorite Trilobites.

Placoderm Fish Head

This is us taking a picture with our favorite fish head

Giant Arthropod

This arthropod has more than 50 legs.

3 Dinosaurs

#1 Edaphosaurus

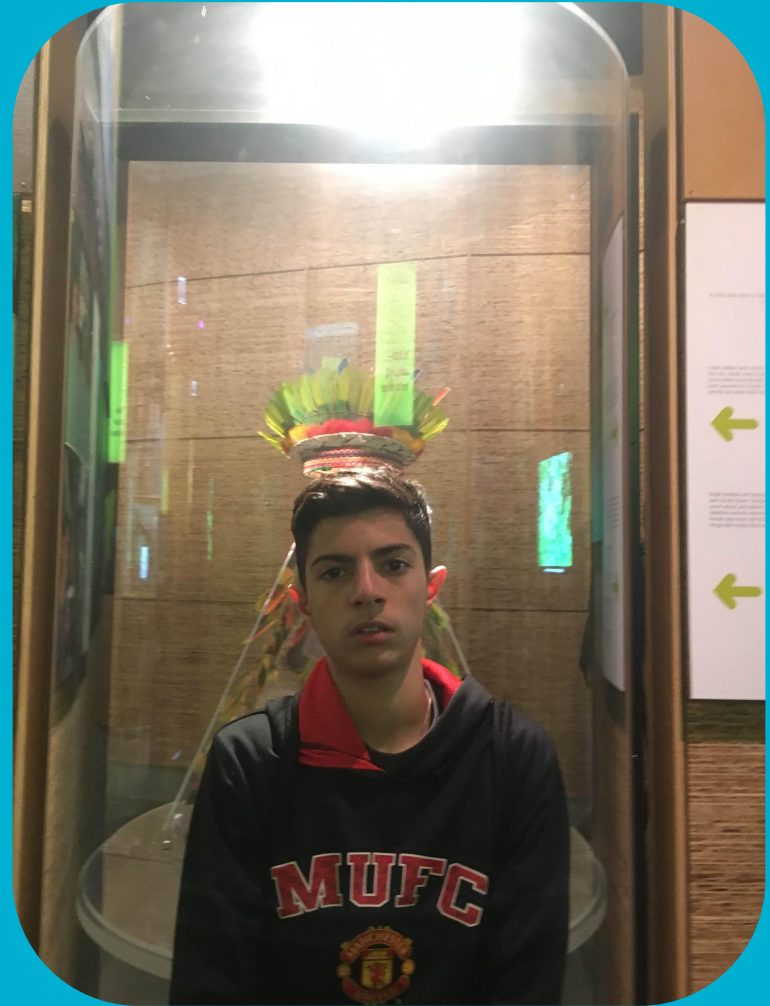

#2 Sphenacodontidae Synapsid

#3 Ophiacodon

Feather Crown

This is David rocking the feathered crown look.

Stretching our arms wide

This game was a bunch of fun to play, but our arms got tired after a bit.

Capybaras

Julie's Family →

Thankyou

